

Key Terms and Conditions of the E-Commerce Agreement

Tbilisi

TBC Bank JSC (hereinafter “the Bank”), represented by -----, on the one hand, and ----- (hereinafter “the Company/Sub-Acquirer”), represented by -----, on the other hand, hereby enter into this E-Commerce Agreement and agree on the following:

1. Subject Matter of the Agreement and Definition of Terms

1.1 The Company (an entrepreneur/ individual taxpayer and/or a legal entity/ organizational entity) shall ensure that Visa and Mastercard payments are accepted for goods sold/services provided by the Merchant through TBC E-commerce and/or TPAY QR and/or GEOPAY as payment gateways, while the Bank shall settle VISA and Mastercard payments for goods sold/services provided by the Merchant.

1.2. The definitions of terms and rules provided in the Agreement are compliant with the rules of international payment systems (payment network processors) VISA International and Mastercard Worldwide:

“Authorization” – for the purposes of this Agreement: a procedure whereby the availability of the necessary amount is checked in the card account and the amount is placed on hold; a procedure for approving or rejecting a transaction request;

“Transaction” – a payment operation involving authorization and settlement;

“Card” – an international payment card from VISA or Mastercard;

“Cardholder” (Client) – a person using a payment card or a digital wallet under a relevant agreement concluded with the issuer;

“Batch” – multiple transactions performed within 24 hours, which an e-commerce gateway transmits to the processor;

“Chargeback” – according to the rules of VISA International and Mastercard Worldwide and the laws of Georgia, a procedure whereby a card issuer or holder files a claim against a transaction and requests full or partial reversal from the acquiring bank (the bank in charge of processing the transaction);

“Fee” – a charge for contractual services paid by the Company to the Bank according to the rules and tariffs set;

“Upfront Fee” – an amount drawn by the Bank from the Company’s account(s) in advance;

“Top-up Fee” – an amount calculated as follows: the Company’s per-transaction service fees collected during an accounting month are summed up at the start of the following month. If the sum of the fees collected from the Company’s transactions in the previous month is less than the amount indicated in the Top-Up Fee box, the difference will be drawn by direct debit from any account of the Company in the month following the accounting month, to which the Company hereby agrees. The Parties agree that transaction fees accrued in the accounting month but debited in the following month are not assigned to the accounting month;

“Deduction” – drawing funds from the Company’s bank account(s) to settle liabilities in compliance with the Agreement;

“Inquest” – collection and clarification of information by the Bank if a problem arises in connection with the Agreement;

“International Payment System” – international payment systems (payment network processors) VISA and Mastercard;

“Insurance Reserve” – funds envisaged herein that are transferred by the Company to the Bank and/or withheld by the Bank from the Company’s transaction proceeds before settlement (before being credited to the Company’s accounts). The Insurance Reserve is deposited into the Bank’s internal (“intrabank”) account;

“Required Balance of the Insurance Reserve” – the minimum balance of insurance reserve set by the Bank under the Agreement;

“Reversal” – a refund of the transaction amount to the client initiated by the Company if the client returns goods or rejects the service;

“Business Day” – a calendar day except any Saturday, any Sunday and any public holidays envisaged by the law of Georgia (from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm);

“Deal” – a deal between the Merchant and the client aimed at the purchase of goods/ services, whereby payments are made using payment cards and the online shopping system;

“Online Shopping System” – application software and hardware operated by the Merchant that enable internet-based transmission of goods/services data and making deals;

“Deal amount” – funds to be accepted by the Company as a compensation due to the Merchant for goods/services purchased by the client, based on deals made by and between the Merchant and the client and this Agreement;

“Good/Services” - Goods/services sold by the Merchant online;

“Issuer” – an organization that issues and delivers to clients bank cards based on relevant agreements;

“Electronic Drafts” – transaction data generated electronically in the online shopping system upon card payment authorization in the card payment network. Electronic drafts are the basis for settlement between the Bank and the Company.

“Digital Wallet” – a software-based system that stores payment card tokens and allows accepting payments for e-commerce transactions and at POS terminals. Payments carried out by means of a digital wallet are subject to the same terms and conditions as card payments envisaged in this Agreement.

Pre-authorization – a temporary hold placed on the transaction amount until its full or partial capture (by the Merchant) or abortion of the transaction. Unless the Merchant finalizes the transaction and captures the amount within 30 (thirty) days of pre-authorization, the hold will expire.

Sub-acquiring – an activity whereby the Company enters into an agreement with and provides settlement for merchant(s)/vendor(s)/service provider(s) within the framework of this Agreement;

Sub-Acquirer – a company in charge of sub-acquiring;

Merchant – a trade and/or service facility that uses e-commerce services offered by the Sub-Acquirer;

2. Rights and Obligations of the Bank

2.1 In line with the Agreement, the Bank undertakes to:

2.1.1 Transfer transaction proceeds to the Company’s account (an account provided by the Company to the Bank) in national currency based on Electronic Drafts and to the deadlines specified in the Application/on the Bank website (as per the applicable laws of Georgia);

2.1.2 Carry out the transfer mentioned in 2.1.1 based on the batch data after the transaction is processed in the payment network;

2.1.3 At the Company’s request, supply the Company with reports/information/documents related to the Merchant’s transactions via e-mail or fax;

2.1.4 Notify the Company regarding a fraudulent transaction no later than the business day after the day on which it is informed about a fraud application and/or a chargeback filed with the card issuer.

2.1.5 Ensure that the transaction amount is settled into the Company’s account in compliance with the terms and conditions stipulated in the Agreement no later than the business day after the transaction date.

2.2 Under the Agreement, the Bank may:

2.2.1 Draw the following amounts from the Company’s account(s) by direct debit (without the Company’s further consent):

- 1) Bank fees;

- 2) Amounts subject to reversal;
 - 3) Chargebacks - amounts of disputed transactions and/or transactions that have been declared fraudulent by the card issuer;
 - 4) Penalties imposed by the International Payment System on the Bank due to an incident observed with the Company/due to charges against the Company;
- 2.2.2 Draw funds from transaction amounts by direct debit in order to maintain the Required Balance of the Insurance Reserve;
- 2.2.3 If requested, provide the International Payment System with any information about the Company available to the Bank;
- 2.2.4 If, within one calendar month, the total amount and/or number of chargebacks reaches 1% (one percent) of the total amount and/or number of transactions or if the number and/or amount of transactions grows sharply, suspend card services and settlements for the Company until the causes are identified (through inspection);
- 2.2.5 Require from the Company all necessary information and documents in the event of a chargeback as well as any suspicious and/or illegal transaction;
- 2.2.6 Suspend daily (24-hour) authorization of transactions if the Company defaults on the Bank's requirements related to the fulfilment of his/her/its Insurance Reserve obligations;
- 2.2.7 Suspend daily (24-hour) authorization of transactions in the ongoing month if in the previous month the Merchant has exceeded online shopping transaction limits set for the Merchant;
- 2.2.8 Deduct the necessary funds by direct debit from the Company's proceeds and/or any accounts(s) held by the Company with the Bank if the Required Balance of the Insurance Reserve is not sufficient to settle the Company's liabilities to the Bank. In the absence of transactions and/or account balance(s), the Company is obliged to forthwith fulfil his/her/its obligations upon the Bank's notice;
- 2.2.9 Without the Company's further approval, open for the Company a payment (current/checking, card, sales, other similar accounts) and/or a Call Deposit account in any currency if the Bank finds out that the Company does not have such an account and/or it is necessary to open such an account additionally (for fulfilling obligations hereunder, for performing transfers in a currency different from the currency of the settlement account(s), etc.). In this case, the Agreement and/or the Application shall be deemed the Company's application for opening a relevant account;
- 2.2.10 Deduct the Upfront Fee from the Company's account(s) for any service provided by the Company under this Agreement upon the receipt (signing) of a notification (request/ consent) via remote channel (including email and the internet bank). If the total fee collected from the Company's sales in the previous month exceeds the Upfront Fee, the latter will be returned in full to the Company's account. However, if the total fee collected from the Company's sales in the previous month is less than the Upfront Fee, respective fees will be drawn from the Company's account(s) in compliance with rules set forth herein;
- 2.2.11 If the Agreement is terminated, not return the Upfront Fee to the Company, regardless of the reason for termination;
- 2.2.12 If the Merchant delays with capture beyond 30 (thirty) days from pre-authorization, the corresponding amount will be drawn from the Company's account(s) without the Company's further consent.
- 2.2.13 Due to the circumstances revealed as a result of the Bank's monitoring, as well as considering the frequency of the Merchant's transactions unilaterally increase/decrease the transaction limit(s) set for the Merchant under this Agreement (its Annexes) anytime without notifying the Company in advance / without the Company's prior approval.
- 2.3 Although the Insurance Reserve percentage is specified in the Application/ on the Bank website, the Bank can increase or decrease the percentage anytime at its own discretion. The revision must be based on the Company's chargeback and reversal indicators and amounts, the status of the Company's accounts, the volume of transactions and other key factors and standards;

- 2.4 The Bank has the right to suspend settlements for the Company and/or terminate the Agreement if there are material circumstances that may inflict a loss on or cause reputational damage to VISA and/or Mastercard Payment Systems.
- 2.5 The Bank has the right not to register, suspend or cancel any of the Company's Merchants if the Bank considers that the Merchant does not comply with the risk assessment standards established by the Bank;
- 2.6 The Bank has the right to set transaction limits for each Merchant of the Company in accordance with its risk assessment procedures. / by considering the frequency of Merchant's transactions and report the limits to the Company via a remote channel (the internet bank). Furthermore, the Bank reserves the right to unilaterally increase/decrease transaction limits for the Merchant anytime.
- 2.7 The Bank has the right to provide information and statements related to transactions performed under this Agreement to the Sub-Acquirer only, as well as complete settlements solely for the Sub-Acquirer, which rules out the Bank's obligation to transfer information to the Merchant and/or complete settlement for the Merchant directly;
- 2.8 The Bank shall be entitled to refuse services to the Sub-Acquirer if it does not have an active account(s) with the Bank;
- 2.9 To ensure that the Sub-Acquirer's financial obligations arising out of this Agreement are satisfied, the Bank shall have the right, without any further consent or permission from the Sub-Acquirer, to draw the corresponding amount from any account of the Sub-Acquirer by direct debit (without seeking the Sub-Acquirer's further consent thereto) anytime after such obligation occurs. If the funds thus drawn are in different currencies and conversion is required, TBC Bank JSC's commercial rate as of the time of debiting will apply.
- 2.10 If the Parties agree on charge(s)/tariff(s) other/lower than the Bank's standard charge(s)/tariff(s) for the service(s) under the Agreement provided the Company gives precedence to TBC Bank JSC's ecommerce service in accepting card payments during the validity period of the Agreement, the Bank is entitled to unilaterally increase the different/lower charge(s)/tariff(s) approved for the Company as soon as the Company breaches the term stipulated herein.

4. Responsibilities of the Parties

- 4.1. If the Parties default on their obligations set forth in the Agreement or the obligations are not duly and completely satisfied, the Parties shall be held responsible in compliance with the effective law of Georgia and the provisions of agreements concluded by and between them;
- 4.2. If the Company defaults on his/her/its obligations set forth in the Agreement or the obligations are not duly and completely satisfied, he/she/it shall compensate the Bank for direct or indirect losses whether inflicted intentionally or due to neglect;
- 4.3. The Bank's responsibility to pay damages arising out of or in relation to the Agreement is only limited to a direct and intentional damage. Therefore, the Company acknowledges that he/she/it will not have the right to make any claim against the Bank if the latter causes damage to the Merchant due to neglect, which includes reputational damage, loss of interest, etc.;
- 4.4. The Bank shall not be held responsible for payment errors due to incorrect banking details supplied by the Company or due to the Company's delay to report changes in banking details;
- 4.5. The Bank shall not be held responsible for the damage brought to clients or third parties due to the Company's and/or the Merchant's default on their liabilities in any deal;
- 4.6. The Company/the Merchant shall be held responsible for the quality of goods/services offered for sale, as well as for the content of any information they provides to clients, including selling details displayed on the website. The Company is likewise obliged to delete immediately any information about the Bank published on his/her/its website if required so by the Bank;
- 4.7. The Company shall be fully obliged to refund the amounts deducted/ to be deducted in compliance with the Agreement and/or the possible damage resulting from the deduction;
- 4.8. The Bank shall not be held liable to refund amounts deducted in compliance with the Agreement;
- 4.9 The Bank shall not be held responsible for the consequences of accepting notifications and/or documents sent to the Bank from the Company' addresses/accounts (email, internet banking) by a third party, and of its (the Bank's) subsequent actions.

- 4.10 The Bank shall not be held responsible for any damage/loss caused by a third party action(s) (including third party modifications made to the Company's website, application or any component thereof or authorized or unauthorized (including fraudulent) third party access thereto).
- 4.11 The Company and the Merchant negotiate with each other agreement terms and conditions/provisions/penalty limits, etc, including those related to the sub-acquiring agreement, independently of the Bank. Therefore, the Bank shall not be held responsible for any consequences/damage/loss resulting from the mentioned agreement.

5. Force Majeure

- 5.1. The Parties to this Agreement shall not be held responsible for non-satisfaction of contractual obligations if delayed fulfilment or non-fulfilment thereof is due to force majeure events ("Force-Majeure");
- 5.2. For the purpose of this provision, Force Majeure refers to unavoidable circumstances beyond the control of the Parties that are not related to the Parties' mistakes or negligence and are unforeseeable. These circumstances may have resulted from war, natural disasters, epidemic, quarantine, etc.
- 5.3 In force-majeure circumstances occur, the Party which is unable to meet its obligations shall forthwith notify the other Party in writing of the circumstances and the underlying causes. If the notifying Party does not receive the other Party's response, it shall continue to perform its contractual obligations at its own discretion, to an extent considered reasonable and possible and make an effort to find alternative ways unaffected by the force-majeure circumstances in order to meet its obligations.
- 5.4 If a force-majeure circumstance persists more than 1 (one) month, the other Party is entitled to terminate the Agreement by notifying the Party thereof.

6. Validity Term, Amendment and Termination of the Agreement

- 6.1. This Agreement shall enter into effect immediately upon signature by the Parties and remain in force indefinitely;
- 6.2. The Company may terminate any or all services envisaged hereunder by notifying the Bank thereof 15 (fifteen) calendar days in advance. In this case, the Company shall pay the Bank all fees and other charges related to the service(s) in question within 5 (five) calendar days of submitting a service termination notice to the Bank;
- 6.3. The Bank may terminate the Agreement anytime by giving the Company 1 (one) month's written notice. The Agreement shall be deemed terminated after all financial, organizational and technical matters are settled;
- 6.4. The Bank has the right to make amendments/additions to the terms and conditions and features of the services(s) described herein and/or charges/tariffs/payments set for the Company/the Merchant under this Agreement / Annex(es) / by sending to the Company a notification via remote channels (the internet bank) 1 (one) month in advance. Furthermore, if the Bank makes amendments/additions to its charges / tariffs / payments, it may propose the Company and/or terminate the provision of any or several services envisaged by the Agreement or annexes hereto. The Company may refuse to take the service envisaged in this Agreement by notifying the Bank thereof in writing within 1 (one) month of the date on which the information about the amendments/additions is displayed on the Bank's website or a relevant notification is sent to the Company. If the Company exercises its rights set out in this Paragraph, it shall settle all fees and other charges related to the service within 5 (five) calendar days of notifying the Bank in writing of its intention to cancel the service envisaged in this Agreement. The Agreement shall be valid until full settlement of all obligations assumed by the Company hereunder. If the Company does not exercise its right to terminate the Agreement, the amendments/additions proposed by the Bank shall be deemed accepted by the Company and the provisions/tariffs/charges shall be amended as proposed. The Bank can effect amendments/additions that do not deteriorate the Company's position as soon as they are published on the website/communicated to the Company in a notification.
- 6.5. The Bank can exercise its right(s) set forth in Paragraphs 2.2, 2.3 and/or 2.4 of this Agreement for 180 (one hundred and eighty) days from the termination of the Agreement.
- 6.6 Any notification / agreement made by and between the Parties under this Agreement and/or Annex(es) hereto shall be in writing and/or sent via a remote channel (the internet bank). A written notification shall be delivered to the Party's address last known to the sender. The Bank may also use other communication channels (including electronic, digital, telephone, etc.);

7. Confidentiality

- 7.1. Unless otherwise envisaged by the effective law of Georgia, each Party undertakes not to disclose to a third party/ies without the other Party's consent any information that directly or indirectly relates to the Agreement and is confidential. This obligation shall remain valid after the termination of this Agreement;
- 7.2. If the breach of disclosure by any of the Parties causes damage to the other Party or third parties, the breaching Party shall pay the damages in full.

Privacy Policy

- 1.1. The Company represents and warrants that it will:
 - 1.1. Process the data transferred to it in compliance with this Agreement and the Law of Georgia solely for the purpose indicated herein and defined by the Law of Georgia;
 - 1.2. Take relevant technical and administrative measures with respect to the risks related to the nature of the data and the data subject in order to prevent unauthorized processing of personal data (including unauthorized dissemination, access, modification and destruction);
 - 1.3 Liaise with the Bank for protecting the privacy of the data subject;
 - 1.4 Observe and inspect/study any activity that violates requirements envisaged by the legislation, including international regulations, and will forthwith report to the Bank thereon;
 - 1.5 Liaise with the Bank on addressing the data access issue on the data subject's request;
 - 1.6 Adhere to legislative, including, international, regulations on privacy and ensure that the data subject's rights are protected;
 - 1.7 Provide the Bank with all information that is necessary to meet regulatory requirements on privacy;
 - 1.8 Allow the Bank or the auditor authorized by the Bank to carry out audit and/or inspection in order to establish if data processing is done appropriately;
 - 1.9 If a data subject requests that his/her data processing be stopped, or wishes to exercises any of his/her other rights under the law (requests that his/her data be corrected, completed, updated, blocked, deleted, destroyed, etc.) or requests information regarding his/her data processing, including the following:
 - 1.9.1 which of his/her data are being processed;
 - 1.9.2 For which purpose;
 - 1.9.3 What are the legal grounds of data processing;
 - 1.9.4 How were the data collected;
 - 1.9.5 To whom were his/her data transferred, on what grounds and for what purpose;
- Forthwith, but no later than the next business day, notify the Bank thereof electronically at the email address privacycommittee@tcbank.com.ge, wait for the Bank's instructions and deliver the requested information to the data subject, in a form requested by the latter, on the same day as the Bank issues the instruction. If the Bank does not respond to the Company's notification, the Company shall nevertheless give the requested information to the data subject. If this rule is breached, the Company shall bear the full responsibility.
- 1.10 Store the records of its data processing activities.
- 1.11 Limit access to personal data to a narrow circle of users/administrators and only grant access rights to those who have been duly instructed on privacy issues in advance, have an immediate need to access the data and are aware of non-disclosure/security requirements and ensure data secrecy protection, including in case of employment termination;
- 1.12 In case of accidental or unauthorized access to personal data, or destruction, loss, modification or disclosure thereof, inform the Bank immediately or not later than 2 (two) business days therefrom regarding the nature of the incident, indicating the data destroyed/lost/modified/disclosed. Furthermore, if possible, report to the Bank the category and exact amount of the data, as well as the way the breach occurred. The report must additionally contain contact information of the data protection officer and the channel through which additional information can be obtained;
- 1.13 Support the Bank in establishing the consequences of data breach;
- 1.14 Take immediate measures to ensure timely response to an incident and elimination of the causes, and inform the Bank about these measures;
- 1.15 Not transfer to a third party personal data received from the Bank under the Agreement without the Bank's prior approval. If such an approval is provided, requirements envisaged hereunder will apply to any third party receiving the data, without any limitations;
- 1.16 Not process personal data against the Bank's instructions, including in case of personal data transfer to a third party, a foreign state or an international organization; forthwith notify the Bank if the Bank's instruction is not compliant with legislative regulations or privacy&data protection requirements of any state;
- 1.17 In case of a dispute between the Parties, transfer to the Bank the data available to it;
- 1.18 Upon the Bank's approval, take special measures, considering the nature of the data and the risks associated with their transfer, especially if the data include information revealing a person's racial and ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or ideological/philosophical convictions, union membership, or unique identifier or identity marker. The obligation hereunder likewise applies to data concerning a person's health, sex life, sex orientation or criminal record.

- 1.19 Not transfer personal data outside Georgia. If the Company's activities require cross-border data transfer, forthwith inform the Bank thereon via email at the address privacycommittee@tcbank.com.ge and wait for the Bank's instructions. Anyway, data transfer to a third party is only allowed provided the data are transferred to a country that is on the Whitelist under the Georgian legislation and GDPR regulations.
- 1.20 On its own, without the Bank's approval, will not transfer data and/or consent to data transfer by a third party to a non-EU member state or outside EEA (European Economic Area). If the Bank gives its approval, it will be guided by EU general data protection regulations and will take special measures to protect personal data;
- 1.21 Assign personal data processing to subcontractors only on special occasions and upon the Bank's written approval. These subcontractors shall have in place relevant security solutions/protocols and be subject to the requirements envisaged hereunder, without any limitations. Assignment of personal data processing to subcontractors does not relieve the Company of its obligations or limit its responsibilities in case of damages resulting from the breach of the obligations;
- 1.22 If the Company hires a subcontractor in personal data processing, inform the Bank regarding the identity of the subcontractors and make changes related thereto only upon the Bank's written approval. The Bank is authorized not to approve the subcontractor proposed by the Company. Unless the disagreement is resolved through negotiations, the Bank is authorized to terminate the Agreement with the Party prematurely, without incurring any compensation liabilities;
- 1.23 If the Company winds up and/or the Bank terminates the agreement, return to the Bank and destroy/delete permanently the personal data transferred to it as well as copies thereof within a reasonable period of time. The Bank is authorized to require confirmation of deletion from the Party. This provision does not apply to information which the Party is obliged to maintain under the effective Law.
- 1.24 Obligations related to personal data processing remain in force following the completion of the contractual relationship up to the date to which the Contractual Party maintains access to personal data transferred to it. This provision shall not be construed as the Company's right to maintain access to personal data transferred to it under the Agreement after the completion of contractual relationship. The Company shall return and destroy/delete permanently personal data transferred to it by the Bank and copies thereof within a reasonable period after the completion of contractual relations but not later than 30 days;
- 1.25 If the local law prohibits deletion or return of data, the Company will remain the data possessor in line with this Policy and solely within the scope required by the local legislation;

TBC Bank E-Commerce

2. In case of reasonable doubts, the Bank is authorized to check the performance of tools and systems used for processing personal data transferred to the Company, as well as their compliance with technical and administrative specifics under safety requirements set forth herein;
3. Depending on the gravity of the breach of the aforementioned guarantees, for the purpose of the inspection, the Bank has the right to demand relevant information and documents from the Company;
4. The Bank shall not be responsible for any damage and cost resulting from deliberate or negligent breach of any of the obligations under this Policy;
5. The Company shall fully adhere to the following requirements of Information System Infrastructure as to the environment in which the personal data supplied by the Bank are hosted/ stored temporarily or continuously:
 - 5.1 Personal data are to be stored and processed in a secure isolation domain separated by the main infrastructure by independent Firewall. The Firewall access must be controlled by duly authorized persons. The data stored/hosted in the secure isolation domain must be accessed via jump servers.

 - 5.13 The data must be shredded or incinerated after the expiration of the retention period or upon special request. The Bank's dedicated representative must be present at the processes of data destruction.

Annex #5

This Annex regulates the relationship between the Company and the Bank when the Company is using the Split feature, which means the splitting of the transaction amount paid by a customer for goods/services purchased via ecommerce channel based on the ratio set by the Company and the Bank's settlement of the split amount into the account(s) of the Company and the Bank Client(s) (an entrepreneur/taxpayer natural person and/or a legal person/a company) who hold an account with the Bank and cooperate with the Company in the provision/delivery of goods/services to the customer) (hereinafter the Company Partner).

1. The overall process of using the Split feature shall follow the scheme described below:

1.1. Based on the Company's relevant application/request, the Bank activates the Split feature for the Company. For taking a decision regarding the activation of the Split feature for the Company, the Bank is authorized to request from the Company the submission of any additional information and/or documents. The Bank reviews the Company's application and in case of a positive decision, starts to provide the Company payment splitting services, in particular:

1.1.1. When a customer pays the price of goods/services via E-Commerce channel, the Company submits to the Bank the ratio for splitting the transaction amount (price of goods/services) between the Company and the Company Partner, as well as the account number of the Company Partner, where to settle the Partner's share in the transaction amount. Based on the mentioned information, the Bank settles the transaction amount into the Company's and the Company Partner's respective accounts by applying the ratio set by the Company (and using the tariff agreed/set between the Bank and the Company, less the Bank's fee (if any)). The total transaction amount settled into the Company's and the Company Partner's accounts (including the Bank fee (if any)) must match the price of goods/services bought by the customer.

1.2. The Company is liable to:

1.2.1. Control the Company's Partner(s) to prevent it/them from carrying out such an activity (including sales of such goods/services) that is prohibited by the Georgian law/the Bank's policy (full responsibility for any such event of breach (including the compensation for damages (if any) detected by the Bank lies with the Company);

1.2.2. Possess (and if necessary, supply the Bank upon request) the information about the Company's partner(s) (type of activity, business model, status, any change to the type of activity and/or other information);

1.2.3. Immediately provide the Bank with the information whether or not the Company replaces/adds partner(s) and/or the type of activity of the Company's partner(s) differs from the activity defined at the time of the Split feature activation. A person/entity will qualify as the Company's Partner under the splitting service based on the Bank's approval only;

1.2.4. Assume responsibility for the correctness/accuracy of the entire information submitted to the Bank under the splitting service (including the Company Partner's/Partners' account number(s), amounts due to the Company Partner(s), information about the Partners replaced/added, etc.), as well as for timely provision of the information to the Bank;

1.2.5. If a customer files a chargeback against the transaction, refund the claimed amount in full and not only the part settled into its account under the splitting service); Besides, the Company shall keep the documents/information related to the chargeback (invoice(s), Transfer and Acceptance Certificate(s), other document(s) related to sold goods/provided service, program records, etc.) for 180 (one hundred and eighty) days and supply them to the Bank upon request in the form/by the procedure/within the term set by the latter (the Company's obligation to provide the Bank with any information/document/report in the form, under the procedure/within the term set by the latter, applies to any transaction performed under the splitting service).

2. The detailed description/procedures/terms of use of the Split feature are published on the Bank's website: <https://tbcpayments.ge/details/ecom/tbc>.

3. The Bank represents and the Company unconditionally confirms that the Bank is not liable (completely refuses to bear responsibility) to control the taxation of the transaction amount(s) transferred to the Company and the Company Partner(s) within the Company's use of the Split feature in line with the tax legislation requirements (if necessary). Besides, the Company is liable not to take such actions that are related to tax fraud / facilitation of tax evasion (directly or indirectly) in any form whatsoever.
4. The Company is entitled to request the deactivation of the Split feature, by sending a notification on the deactivation to the Bank (in any form of the notification under the E-Commerce Agreement signed between the Bank and the Company/confirmed by the Company (including, electronically)). On the day of receiving the notification, the Bank ensures the deactivation of the Split feature.
5. This Annex is an essential part of the E-Commerce Agreement signed by and between the Bank and the Company/ validated by the Company (including electronically) and all terms/articles/paragraphs/provisions of the mentioned Agreement apply hereto.

Annex #6

Annex #8

This Annex regulates the Company's (Companies') acceptance of online payments through direct integration with VISA's payment service provider CyberSource:

- CyberSource is a payment platform that enables online payment processing and payment card settlement through different methods and channels.
- CyberSource will enable the Company to accept online payments through direct integration with VISA SyberSpace, meaning that the Company will have its own user account with SyberSource, in which to manage oline card payments and transactions).
- If the Company is willing to use VISA's CyberSource for accepting and managing online payments, upon its (the Company's) request, the Bank will support its integration with CyberSource and enable processing of transactions/settlement for the Company, which will be carried out as follows: the Company will directly access VISA CyberSource through API integration (API - an application programming interface that enables information transfer between two platforms, serves as a medium between a company and a user, and also allows connection and information exchange between companies); VISA will transfer the transaction data to the processor (UFC), which will forward the data to the Bank.
- Through CyberSource integration, the Company will be able to make use of the accomplished e-commerce payment gateway by selecting "Bank transaction processing via CyberSource" in the menu. In this case, the Company must get registered with the Bank (by following the Bank's procedure for registering companies in the e-commerce business customer database) and then the Bank will register the Company on the CyberSource platform, after which the Company will be enabled to accept payments.
- The Company hereby agrees that during its registration on the CyberSource platform carried out by the Bank, the Bank will transfer the Company's information to CyberSource (its trade name, address, contact details; information about its authorized representative(s) and/or employee(s) and/or contact person(s) (including their personal data: name, surname, email address and mobile phone number). The Company hereby confirms that it has to obtain its employee's and/or representative's and/or contact person's consent over processing their data envisaged herein, before transferring the data to the Bank. Furthermore, immediately upon the Bank's request but no later than the 2nd business day therefrom, the Company shall submit to the Bank a consent form for data processing signed/certified by its employee and/or representative and/or contact person.
- To enable the Company to process transactions on its (the Company's) website, the Bank will assign a unique identification number (Merchant ID) to the Company and set up for it a payment configuration, after which the Bank will receive an encryption key (for payment completion and secure encryption during technical integration) and 3D Secure settings (a mandatory security protocol on card payments) and share them with the Company.
- User credentials will be set up for the Company on the CyberSource platform, with which the Company will be able to log into the platform and manage (validate/cancel/export, etc.) transactions.
- To have access to the full CyberSource payment portfolio, the company may accept payments on its own via predesigned websites integrated with CyberSource. To do so, the Company must log into the readymade website platform, indicate CyberSource in the field for payments and enter the encryption key / 3D settings.

TBC Bank E-Commerce

- CyberSource enables the Bank to manage the Company's payments (view / manage / report, etc. transactions).
- The Company is aware and confirms that if the Company integrates CyberSource directly through the International Payment System VISA and VISA cancels or suspends the Company's access to CyberSource services (on any grounds whatsoever), the Bank will not be responsible for the consequences of cancellation and/or suspension. Furthermore, if VISA's forthcoming cancellation and/or suspension of services under this Annex comes to the Bank's notice in advance, the Bank will immediately notify the Company thereof in a form envisaged in this Agreement. The Bank is entitled to unilaterally limit/restrict the Company's access to CyberSource services anytime, without prior notice, in order to ensure that the legislative requirements are met and/or the Company's obligations under the Agreement and/or any Annex thereto are satisfied and/or the Company's financial problems are prevented. In this case, the Bank will not be responsible for the consequences of / for the damage/loss (if any) caused by the cancellation and/or suspension.
- A detailed description and terms and conditions of services envisaged in this Annex are provided on the Bank's website:
<https://www.tbcbank.ge/web/en/web/guest/cybersource>

Annex #9

The Rules/Terms hereunder are binding on the Companies that operate online ecommerce platforms aimed at integrating vendors/service providers and customers into a single online site (hereinafter the “Marketplace”) for the purpose of selling goods / providing services.

The Company shall:

1. Develop policies and procedures for (i) identifying vendors / service providers (as well as their beneficiary/ies) and customers / collecting information for further analysis / data tracking; (ii) verifying the truthfulness and accuracy of information obtained / collected as per (i). These policies and procedures shall be in line with the Law on Facilitating the Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing / the applicable US, EU, UK and Georgian laws on the administration of international sanctions and monitoring of sanctioned persons.
2. Before the sale of goods/provision of service on the platform, sign an agreement with the vendors/service providers to preclude deals between the vendors/service providers and customers that can be associated with fraud and/or unauthorized transaction. The breach of this provision will result in the termination of the Agreement without notice.
3. Make sure that the vendors’/service providers’ names included in the POI (Point of Interaction – a system/device used by a cardholder to carry out a financial transaction) data are protected from third party use, to prevent an unlawful use of trademarks/tradenames, including an illegal use of corporate names by entities acting in bad faith. Control tools may include vendor / service provider name monitoring by means of special lists (if any);
4. In view of a vendor’s/service provider’s business activity, put in place a tool to estimate loss due to fraud/unlawful action (including trade in counterfeit goods / breach of intellectual rights).
5. Check and control POI (Point of Interaction – a system/device used by a cardholder to carry out a financial transaction) data and the vendors’/service providers’ business activity to make sure that all transactions to the sale of goods/provision of service are carried out in line with the vendors’/service providers’ jurisdiction and the code of ethics and standards.
6. Be aware of its responsibilities for all activities and deviations, responsibilities/obligations related to customer service, inter alia with regard to disputes/chargebacks/claims initiated by customers.
7. Provide the Bank with any transaction/vendor/service provider-related information and/or document immediately and/or within the term set by the Bank, or fully compensate the Bank for the loss/damage incurred due to non-submission/late submission of such information/document.
8. Control vendor(s)/service provider(s) to prevent them from carrying out activities (including sale of goods/provision of service on the platform) prohibited by the Georgian legislation / the Bank’s policy / as well as rules/policies/regulations of international payment networks (VISA International and Mastercard Worldwide). The Company will be fully responsible for any such violation detected by the Bank (including for the compensation of damage, if any). Furthermore, the Company will be fully responsible for the quality of goods sold/services provided, any information supplied to customers, as well as the goods/service-related content published on the platform.
9. In case of chargebacks, fully refund the customer the disputed amount (the Company shall bear full responsibility for any customer complaint/claim/chargeback related to the purchase of goods/service on/via the platform). Furthermore, the Company shall keep documents/information related to the disputed transaction (invoice(s), transfer and acceptance document(s), other document(s) related to goods sold/service rendered, software entries, etc.) for 180 (one hundred and eighty) days and provide them to the Bank upon request (immediately and/or within the term and in a form required by the Bank).
